

"The Voice"

Anna Lemman, one of the most seductive voices in the city ...( Muenchner AZ)... takes her audience on a journey and delves into a world of strong emotions.

Anna conquers her listener's hearts by immersing herself in her music with a passion second to none.

She has incredible stage presence, her expressive interpretations and her natural charm make every evening with Anna Lemman an unforgettable experience.

Be it classic, jazz, ballads, swing or her own compositions , Anna ,born in Munich , lends every song her inimitable style , with sensitivity and musical virtuosity in equal measures. Hers is a gentle velvety sound filled with blues and soul.

She makes every song her own part of her own history.Lemman presented her own compositions for the first time in 2007 with her album " Moon Hours". (.....) which was followed in 2010 by her second album " Spuren" (Traces) , a jazz oeuvre with German lyrics.

For her new album " about dreams" her fantastic jazz ensemble (....) is joined by musicians of the orchestra of the "Staatstheater Am Gaertnertplatz" .

Lemman's music seamlessly makes the transition between the different genres. Jazz, pop and classic become one and an open space for a great variety of her sounds and moods.

Press:

Lemman's felty-velvety alto captivates and unsettles in equal measures. Her singing reaches deep down , at times fleetingly caressing her audience and then becoming increasingly visceral. She sings with her whole body , her breath becomes expression.

.... She has stories to tell , her songs are about life's experiences, about suffering, strength and the human condition.

She is tangible, vulnerable, her emotions are laid bare , she delivers with impeccable technique.

Lemman founded bands such as " Lemansland" and " Nana's Affairs" and has fronted a great number of diverse jazz ensembles. Over the past decade Anna Lemman, daughter of an opera singer, has established herself as one of the most impressive voices in the Munich jazz scene.

2018 RELEASE "ALLURE"

Anna Leman's new album , beguiling and bewitching , leads you into a world of deep emotions, sensuality , passion , joy, and sadness.

All aspects of life interpreted and celebrated musically at the highest level.

Her band " Lemansland" is bursting with playfulness and inventiveness. At times her music is delicate and pure , then again playful, vivacious and full of energy.

Amongst others she has arranged famous classics like Piazzolla, Tom Waits and Elvis Presley, with great respect and love for the original material and she has achieved a harmonious combination with her own compositions.

Anna's album "Allure" is as multifaceted and charming as her touching and authentic interpretations. A gentle breeze , with grand emotions, a strong and clear sound.

And down to earth!

anna leman grew up immersed in classical music, she spent her child hood in the wings of the theatre in a world suspended between dream and reality. her father was an opera singer and her mother a classical dancer. initially her musical education happened through listening to recordings of operas , which she played over and over again until she could sing them all by heart. later she had a tutor to develop her classical singing voice as well as learning to play the piano.

in her twenties she trained as a wig and make up artist at the "bavarian state opera house" , during which time she discovered her love for jazz and musical impressionism. satie, debussy, ravel and jazz singers like ella fitzgerald, diane krall or silije neergaad influenced all her further musical work.

2007 she founds her jazz band " lemansland" ( lyrics and music: anna leman)
